- - SENIOR WEEKEND - - JUST AROUND THE CORNER ! !

Three Big Features

By RED LEVINS

Rumor has it that a Burlington city ordinance forbids sleeping in Battery Park. So it's imperative that all those who plan to attend the best Senior weekend ever, do something soon about reserving rooms for their dates.

GET YOUR RESERVATIONS

The Vermont Music Festival takes place in Burlington on May 8 and 9, the same dates as our Junior Prom and its accompanying activities. Good rooms are already at a premium and are becoming scarcer every day.

GIRLS, GIRLS, GIRLS!

Tickets for the entire week-end's activities (exclusive of refreshments) are available in each dormitory, along with the accompanying invitation and reservation for Friday's semi-formal Prom. $6.50 is the price of a blanket ticket but a small amount down will give you an invitation to send to your " jeune fille." Most of us who have fidgeted while waiting for one of the fair sex to ready herself for a date know that they're not always the speediest creatures in the world.

LET'S GO, MEN

Since but two weeks remain before the Prom, and since the gals' will all be striving to look their best, it's a good idea to get your invitations in the mail, even if you can't afford the ticket until later.

" MOONLIGHT CRUISE "

One feature of the week-end that has aroused considerable interest and favorable comments is Saturday evening's " Moonlight cruise" on the " Ticonderoga." There will be dancing on the upper deck which can easily accomodate over 200 couples. Music will be provided by four members of Vermont's Catamounts featuring vocals by the popular Jacquelyn Howley.

HE HAS PROMISED!

The lower deck with its refreshment lounge and souvenir counters will also be open. The weatherman, who knows better than to trifle with a Michaelman's plans (apparently he misread the script for the Winter Week-end) has promised to co-operate fully.

Of course, the moonlight cruise is but one of the outstanding features of this event. It's the last time to release those pent-up pre-exam emotions. One always studies better with a clear head(?)

Reservations Are A Must

This year the Junior Prom committee has decided on a policy a bit different from previous years, in regard to reservations.

NOW READ THIS

All those persons who go to the Prom on Friday evening without a reservation will have to wait for a table until everyone, who has a reservation, is seated. The reason for this rule is to prevent any reoccurrence of difficulties which have taken place in previous years.

GET YOURS NOW

In regard to this, reservations can be made with Tom Nichols in 228 Ryan Hall. Starting April 21, he will be in the Library on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2-4. Reservations will close Tuesday May 4.

DON'T FORGET TO MAKE A RESERVATION

BACK FROM BOSTON N.F.C.C.S. BRING LAURELS

By JOE McCANN

Led by the Rev. Fr. Lorenzo D'Agostino, S.S.E., the St. Michael's NFCCS moderator, the St. Michael's NFCCS unit completed a very successful weekend at the seventh annual regional convention of the National Federation of Catholic College Students which was held on April 17, 18, and 19 in Boston, Mass.

NEWMAN CLUB & TRINITY ADD

Accompanying the St. Michael's group to the congress, which was held at the Bradford Hotel with sessions at Boston College and Emmanuel College, were two representatives from the U.V.M. Newman Club and the Trinity NFCCS group.

ARCHBISHOP CUSHING

The Congress was opened on Friday night by Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, who gave the keynote address. He spoke on student leacership. NFCCS regional officers also spoke.

SMC REKINDLES INTEREST

In the evaluation of campus NFCCS units given by Bill Rust, NFCCS Regional president, St. Michael's was commended. Mr. Rust said, " After a slow start, the senior delegate who was new to the federation, speeded up considerably and has done much both to rekindle an interest in the federation at St. Michael's and to service his campus clubs. An active and well orientated campus unit has been organized.....The president has no suggestions or criticism at this time."

PROMINENT FIGURES

Michaelmen figured prominently in panel discussions held on Saturday at Boston College. The International Relations panel was moderated by John O'Connor, a member of the S.M.C. International Relations Club, and Jim Johnson, N.F.C.C.S. delegate, spoke at the panel.

FORENSICS PANEL

The Forensic panel was conducted by Joe McCann, the St. Michael's senior delegate. Six colleges took part in this panel. The subjects discussed were as follows: (1) Advisability of a Regional Forensic Commission, and (2) Intercollegiate Debating in the New England Region.

THE C.C.D.

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine panel heard a talk by Joseph Castricone, St. Michael's Sodality vice-president, on " Sodality and the C.C.D."

The St. Michael's senior delegate was appointed a member of the Resolutions Committee to pass on resolutions suggested for the assembled college student's vote.

Gives Address On Communism

Dr. Charles Gray speaks to the International Relations Club at 8 o'clock Friday evening, April 24, 1953, in Science Hall 107. His subject will be " What is going on in that American Outpost, the Philippines?"

Dr. Gray, who is now the head of the English department at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, has a wide background. After graduating from the University of Washington he got his Master's and Doctorate at Columbia University. He has taught at Columbia, Reed, Bennington, Bowdoin, Adelphi and St. John's College.

Besides being a member of " Who's Who In America," he was a winner of a Rhodes Scholarship as well as being the author of " Theatrical Criticism in London Until 1795," and editor of " Hazlitt's Essays."

STUDIED COMMUNISM

As a recipient of a Fulbright professorship at the University of the Philippines in 1951 and 1952, Dr. Gray had a chance to view the political situation very closely there. He made a personal study of the Communist movement there and his lecture will deal with the results of his study.

All students are encouraged to attend this meeting for a very informative as well as enjoyable evening discussing a very pertinent subject.

NINE-COLLEGE TOURNEY DEBATE EMPLOYMENT LAW

By JOHN CARROLL

On the weekend of April 23, 24 and 25, the St. Michael's College Debating Club will be sending four of its members on a road trip throughout New England to debate at various colleges on the topic, Resolved: " The Federal Government Should Enact a Fair Employment Practices Law."

DEBATING ABILITY, AT A PREMIUM

The members going on the trip are: John O'Connor '54, and John Carroll '54, debating as a team; and John Stebbins '56, and Henrick Bredenberg '56, debating as another team. These men were chosen on the basis of their active club work throughout the year as well as their ability.

NINE COLLEGE TOURNEY

The teams against which these men will debate represent such colleges as: St. Anselms, Holy Cross, Worcester Technical College, Massachusetts Instituate of Technology. Harvard, Boston College, Smith and American International College.

Saint Michael's has an outstanding record of their past New England trips and hope that this one will be as successful as those in the past.

"HAVE YOU HEARD...?"

Great minds discuss ideas

Average minds discuss events

Small minds discuss people.

There is one situation on campus which has gotten out of hand, and that is gossip!

Plain, ordinary, malicious gossip.

What does it consist in? Well, mostly the usual kind of back-biting and passing on of " juicy morsels " which the gossiper picks up or invents. It usually does not even amount to good criticism. What gossipers do not realize is that the " back yard " gossip and " dirty laundry " that they display does as much damage to their own character both in development and reputation as it does to their victim, - usually more.

The gossiper can be easily recognized in the three main types: the babbling tongue type, the two-faced type and the back-biting buddy type. The first of these casually slips around picking up dirt (everything is - to his mind) then runs off furiously wagging his oversized tongue at anyone who will listen.

The second type is a little more brazen. He will approach the unsuspecting with a smile on his face, pry out what he can, then proceed as the first type.

The last type is the shrewdest and lowest type of all. He poses as the true friend, shares intimacies then proceeds to hang out the dirty laundry. It is an amazing thing and more than a coincidence that the three usually hang around together, for no one else would waste his time listening to them; and they do become known.

Why is it done? The answer lies in the individuals themselves. The reasons come out when a survey of the character types of these people is taken. They show jealousy. Usually if conditions surrounding a certain gossiper and victim are investigated, it will be found that there is a strong basis for jealousy in the former, which comes out in half true or clearly false stories about the latter.

Due to a desire to get evened up but hampered by an inadequacy in the person's character and a lack of development and immaturity, he cannot offset the block in any other way. Accompanying this and probably one of the causes is the existence of an extreme form of selfishness in the individual. This condition intensifies both the desire to get even and the jealousy.

Gossip is not a manly attribute and any self-respecting male steers away from it.

A further point is that most of the time the tales spread are not true to begin with; and from the moral view there is the double sin of calumny and detraction. It could be a mortal sin.

There is the situation. Anyone with enough common sense to recognize the wrong should consider it a duty to get rid of it both in himself and in others.

St. Michael's is a school of men first of all, of moral men and specifically Catholic moral men. Let's live up to and be worthy of that title whether it be taken as a goal - or a challenge.

"LIVING ROSARY"

Two celebrations to honor our Mother Mary will be held on campus this coming week.

The St. Michael's College Sodality is again planning its Living Rosary for May 1.

The ceremony, open to the public, will be on the college athletic field at 8 p.m. Preceding the rosary, a May Crowning of the statue will take place. Miss Dorothy-Leary of Trinity College has been chosen to crown the statue of the Blessed Mother.

The Very Reverend Fr. Jeremiah T. Purtill, Superior General, will give a short sermon and lead in the recitation of the Rosary.

The Rosary will climax the Missionette which will be held April 29, 30 and May 1.

The Rev. Edward Foster, assistant editor of the Vermont Sunday Visitor, will preach the sermon for the Missionette. His sermon will be " Peace through Prayer To Mary."

Cleveland Williams, president, has designated Harry Brusa as chairman and Pete Spillane as, Co-Chairman.

Seniors in caps and gowns will also participate in the procession and the saying of the rosary.

Preceding the Living Rosary, the ROTC cadets at St. Michael's and the band will present the " Star Spangled Banner."

On Sunday night, May 3, at 6, the traditional May procession to the statue behind Prevel Hall will be held. Seniors in caps and gowns will start from behind College Hall and march to the statue for the crowning.

Since the ceremony is traditional, all students are expected to attend. Crowning of the statue will be by Cleveland Williams, president of the Socality. The wreath at the foot of the statue will be placed by David Mullin, president of the senior class.

Owen J. Murphy, Jr., president of the Student Council, will introduce the speaker. The outdoor benediction will be conducted by Rev. Raymond M. Poirier.

AFROTC

A substantial increase in flying training applicants is expected as the result of the recent Air Force announcement cutting the active-duty tour for Air Force ROTC flying applicants from four to three years.

The three-year period includes the thirteen (13) months spent in flying training.

Brigadier General Matthew K. Deichelmann, Air Force ROTC Commandant, in making the announcement stated that an annual goal of 11,500 flight-training applicants who are AFROTC graduates has been set, beginning in 1955.

Approximately 2,000 of the 6,800 AFROTC cadets graduating this Spring have applied for flying training. This is a substantial increase over last year, when less than 800 of 6,500 graduating applied.

The re-orientation of the Air Force ROTC program in the direction of providing more flying officers results from the Air Force requirement to expand from 95 to 143 wings with a relatively small increase in personnel.

The large increase in the number of flying officers needed for the expansion has sharply reduced the number of non-flying officers required from the ROTC.

The four-year tour of duty previously required of Air Force ROTC graduates who were interested in flying training had deterred many from applying, as those going into non-flying assignments serve only two years.

Unlike aviation cadets, Air Force ROTC graduates undergo flying training as commissioned officers.

Appointments For Two Profs.

Dr. Jeremiah K. Durick and Mr. John D. Donoghue have been named to posts in the new organization set up by English teachers in the New England Catholic colleges.

Dr. Durick, chairman of the English department, was named to the publications committee. Mr. Donoghue, director of public relations and Michaelman moderator is a member of the executive committee.

The appointments were made following the meeting of the English departments of the National Catholic Education Association at Boston Saturday.

MISSION CRUSADE HEARS BOYS CLUB MODERATOR

The Mission Crusade welcomed back an alumnus Tuesday evening, Rev. Nelson Ziter, moderator of Don Bosco's Boy's Club who gave a most interesting and inspiring talk to the students and faculty attending. Father Ziter introduced by Rev. Maurice Boucher S.S.E., gave a brief history of the Boy's Club since its founding in October 1947 and the remarkable growth in recent years.

NAMED AFTER A SAINT

The Boy's Club was founded by a group of colored boys who approached Fr. Ziter about setting up an organization for the colored youth of Selma. The Club first came under the name of Young Men's Social Club, but later when a constitution was drawn up it was changed to Don Bosco's Boy's Club in honor of Don Bosco, 'patron of youth.' Its first club room was a parish hall, but later the Club was donated a separate building which increased the facilities of the Club after it was remodelled.

SELF-GOVERNMENT

The main purpose of the Club is to provide proper recreation for colored who otherwise would be completely neglected. Through proper recreation and guidance the Club helps to rehabilitate and better the morals of young men of high school age.

The main feature of the Club is self-government in which boys are taught leadership and responsibility through the workings of its Council.

This Council of eight men completely cares for the Club and serves as a Court for the correction and punishment of misbehavior of any one of the 300 members. Another outstanding feature of the Club is its well-organized sports program. In recent years the Club has won many trophies in basketball and softball. It is through this sports program that a number of scholarships have been awarded to the outstanding athletes by various colleges.

" ALUMNI " KICKBACK

Along with numerous social activities the Club has an Employment Agency which seeks work for its members. Many of the boys through this agency have been able to save enough money to pay part of the expenses of college. In all, about 40 former members of the club are now in college. Almost 100 former members are now serving their country in the Armed Forces. The boys recognizing the benefits they have derived from this organization are now providing help to further its work.

TO RAISE THEIR STANDARDS

This year Father Ziter is planning help for 10 members who want to go to college. He suggested this as a future project for Mission Crusade and students. " Without education," Father Ziter said, " it is impossible for the colored to raise their own standards and to become accepted by the whites of the South." In closing he expressed his sincere gratitude for the support received from the students in the past and begged for continued financial and spiritual help.

Mr. Hebert, who recently assumed the post of tennis mentor, announced that this newly formed team would compete in matches with Middlebury, Vermont and Champlain this spring. The season opener is this Saturday when the Knights take south to take on Middlebury. On April 28th, St. Michael's plays host to the Catamounts of Vermont, and then crosses the lake to face Champlain May 5th. An away game with Vermont and a home contest against Middlebury will wind up the season. The two home games will be played on the new courts here at the campus.

" This year we are primarily concerned with giving the team a taste of Intercollegiate competition," said Coach Hebert, " we have quite a few underclassmen on the squad and are more or less preparing for the coming years."

The roster of the squad has about ten members, headed by Bob Fosket and Stan Albro, the finalists in the tourney held in the fall. Along with these are Ed Trombley, Dick Parenteau, Les Kipp, Art McCormick, John Brucker, Vic Chase and Bill Weihs. At least six of these will get to play in each meet since a match calls for six singles and three doubles, with two out of three sets deciding the winner. Needless to say, it would be a good thing to give the squad some support in the way of attendance at the home encounters.

Spring football practice started before the vacation, but you could almost count on one hand the number of times the weather has allowed them to get outside .... Barbati, Spreer and Sully are about the only ones who turn in football cleats for baseball spikes this spring .... Look for a benefit raffle to be run off by the ski team soon. No connection but Bob O'Brien of the same team will jump in the USEASA championships at Lake Placid in July .... The MVP trophy awarded after the intra-basketball tourney went to Jack Kendrick of St. Pat's.

Sailing Club In Dual Meet

The St. Michael's Sailing team was beaten 30-26 this past weekend in a dual meet with Merrimac College at Mallets Bay. Originally scheduled as a triangular meet, it was reduced to two teams when Maine failed to put in an appearance. The Knight sailors were able to take only one out of six races over the mile and a half course in a southwest wind. Mike Seele and Dave Matson combined as the " A " team for St. Michael's while Len Frosina and Jim Roche made up the " B " crew, which gained the one victory.

Each race consisted of three boats, with the teams taking running two in a race. It was the second meet this season for the S.M.C. sailors, who had previously finished well ahead of Merrimac in an octagonal meet.

STATE MEET COMING UP

This Saturday at Shelbourne Harbor, the Knights will compete against Vermont, Middlebury, and Babson, and on May 2, enter a state sail with Vermont, Norwich and Middlebury. During the Junior Prom weekend, St. Michael's will send two crews to Middlebury, who plays host to the Knights, Vermont, Merrimac and Babson.

Those interested in sailing and who would like to join the team can still do so by contacting Stan Hayes or Len Frosina.

GOLF TEAM AFTER PAYOFF

Having completed the playoff tournament at the Williston Golf links, the St. Michael's golf team has narrowed its ranks from over fifteen candidates to six members and two alternates.

Art Kiernan led the way in the twenty-seven hole tourney with 110. Eleven strokes behind him were Joe O'Leary and Jack Shea with 121, while Ernie Boutote totaled 125. The other two members to gain a place on the roster were Jack Calnan and Jim Considine. Fred Hannan and Garry Barry were chosen as the alternates.

With Mr. Dirmaier as coach, the squad will hold its practice sessions and home matches at the Burlington Country Club. The schedule is not yet finished, but should be released in the near future. It is known, however, that St. Michael's will compete against Vermont, Norwich and Middlebury in the Vermont Intercollegiate Championship on May 22.

SMC TO MEET CATS

Weather Cancels Softball Games

A variety of rain, snow and cold weather has cancelled nearly all the intramural softball games scheduled thus far. The only two games that did manage to be played saw Ryan IV triumph over Ryan III while St. Williams was topping St. Leo's. The Ryan I-Ryan II, Old Hall III - Old Hall IV, and Faculty - Dayhops game all had to be postponed till a later date.

Next week when Daylight Savings time comes into effect, Fr. Stankiewicz hopes to be able to get in games at four and six o'clock. Then as more fields become available, as many as four games a day will be scheduled so that each team gets to play as often as possible before the examination period.

With the prospects of some good baseball weather getting brighter, the Purple Knights' Nine are sharpening their batting eyes in the hope of successfully opening their '53, schedule with a victory over Vermont at Centennial Field next Friday. The Catamounts have a definite advantage in that their season is already well underway.

John Sully, St. Michael's right-hander will probably get the nod to start against the Cats." Big " John racked up a win last season over U.V.M., at Centennial and would like nothing better that to begin where he left off. The remainder of the pitching staff is composed of returnees Dan Dowd and Gerry Smith, and two promising freshmen, Jack Leonard and Doug Mackey.

INFIELD A PROBLEM

The lineup itself is still undecided with the possible exceptions of John Barbati, the scrappy backstop and Bob Bolster, veteran first sacker. Dick Giltrop, batting star of last year's J.V. along with Charlebois, Cowell, Lennon and O'Brien are all putting in bids for the outfield positions. The infield, hard hit by graduation and an

Centennial Pageant Features Many Tableaus

The Burlington Centenary Pageant will have a special tableau to commemorate noted Vermonters who were converted to Catholicism.

Prof. Henry A. Fairbanks, Director of the pageant, disclosed today such historic figures as Orestes Brownson, Stephen A. Douglas, the Barlow Sisters, Abby Hemenway and Brother Dutton will have a special tableau to themselves. All these figures will be portrayed in costumes faithful to their period during the pageants at Burlington May 17 and at Rutland, May 24.

OTHER TABLEAUS

In other tableaus, tribute will be paid to the memory of Fanny Allen, convert daughter of Ethan Allen and Col. Archibald Hyde who taught catechism to early Catholics even before his own conversion.

Brownson's decision to become a Catholic is also being recalled in a special Brownson Symposium July 11 at St. Michael's College on the sesquicentennial of his birth.

MANY HISTORICAL FIGURES

Stephen Douglas was the famous orator who debated Abraham Lincoln. The three Barlow Sisters are remembered through Villa Barlow at St. Albans. Abby Hemenway was the tireless town clerk who spent her spare time collecting the history of the state. Joseph Dutton was the Stowe native whose work for the lepers with Fr. Damien is depicted in the church at Stowe.

St. Michael's College Air Force ROTC Cadets, 400 strong, will take part with their band in the CYO Pageant marking the Centennial of the Burlington diocese.

POWER FOR PEACE

The pageant at Centennial Field in Burlington on Sunday, May 17, comes during the celebration of Armed Forces Week and will fulfill the "Power for Peace" theme which the Department of Defense has suggested.

IN KEEPING WITH SPIRIT

Lt. Col. Jarvis R. Kingston, professor of Air Science at St. Michael's, said that all units of the Armed Forces are urged to take part in community activities. Since the pageant will interest and attract thousands, it was felt that participation in the pageant would be very much in keeping with the spirit of the directive.

AFROTC PARTICIPATION

Cadet Lt. Col. John R. McSweeney of Burlington has been assigned to direct cadet participation.

M. Sgt. Alexander Stone will direct the band which will also march in the procession.

The cadets wear their Air Force blue uniforms with the distinctive St. Michael's AFROTC shoulder patch.

Mr. Garrett DES Executive

Thomas A. Garrett, registrar at St. Michael's College, has been named to the executive board of Delta Epsilon Sigma, the national Catholic honor society.

The appointment came at the annual meeting at Atlantic City. Garrett is a St. Michael's Alumnus who earned his master of arts degree at State College for Teachers in Albany, and did graduate work at St. Louis University, University of Ottawa and served as a fellow in administration at New York University.

Garrett has been registrar at St. Michael's since 1943 and coordinator of veterans affairs since 1944.

One of the early members of Alpha Nu Chapter, Delta Epsilon Sigma at St. Michael's, he has often held chapter office. He is also active in the New England chapter of the American Association Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers whose convention he is now attending.

CAN YOU SPEAK IN PUBLIC?

There is an essential value to be gained from participation in the Debating club and that is the ability of developing oneself to be able to stand before an audience and defend or expound upon those principlee in which he believes. Any senior who has to go through Practice Teaching without previous experience in public speaking will attribute to the value of a club such as Debating. Every college graduate should have this ability.

" THE CLUB FOR YOU "

The Debating Club is a development area for speaking maturity; to learn to speak not only well but errectively and have a good time doing it. This is what the Debating Society offers. If there are any who feel that they are lacking in this art or wish to become more pro-efficient in speaking and thinking before an audience then they are welcome to become members of the Newman Debating Society.

Meetings are held every Tuesday at 4:00 P.M. in Science Hall 307. All are welcome to come and visit, if not to join.

Actually, the weather has prevented the squad from getting outside too much and so no spot can be said to be sewed up. As soon as some clear days come along, the boys should be able to come into their own and glue down their positions.

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?

You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike...

Be Happy-GO LUCKY!

Poor Cinderella lost her shoe,
Which her Prince Charming found.
Their joy would have been more complete
Had Luckies been around!
